- 4) After you login, the MMH Portal page displays all the appropriate links and resources depending on your system access level.

Access to MMH Training (All system users)

To view the interactive and self-paced MMH online training course for educators, click the Online Training Course link within the Training & Support box.

The MMH Program offers live and recorded webinars on a variety of timely and relevant topics.

For custom training and implementation support, click the Request Instructor-led Training form link.

The image shows two parts of the MMH website interface. On the left is a 'Training & Support' menu box with a blue header. It contains the text: 'The MMH Program offers in-person and online training and support opportunities for teachers and educators.' Below this text are five items: a green button labeled 'Go to Recorded Webinars', a blue link 'View Upcoming Webinars', a blue link 'Online Training Course', a blue link 'Request Instructor-led Training', and a blue link 'Submit Questions or Feedback'. Two red arrows point to the 'Go to Recorded Webinars' button and the 'Online Training Course' link. On the right is a banner for 'Michigan Model for Health: Online Training' featuring a man in a blue shirt and tie. The banner includes a 'START COURSE' button and a poster titled 'MAKING FRIENDS'.

Access to Digital Curriculum (Educators with Active Licenses Only)

To view the MMH digital curriculum, click the Go to Digital Curriculum button within the Curriculum box. From the My Curriculum page, click the appropriate grade level button for the digital curriculum license(s) that you have access to.

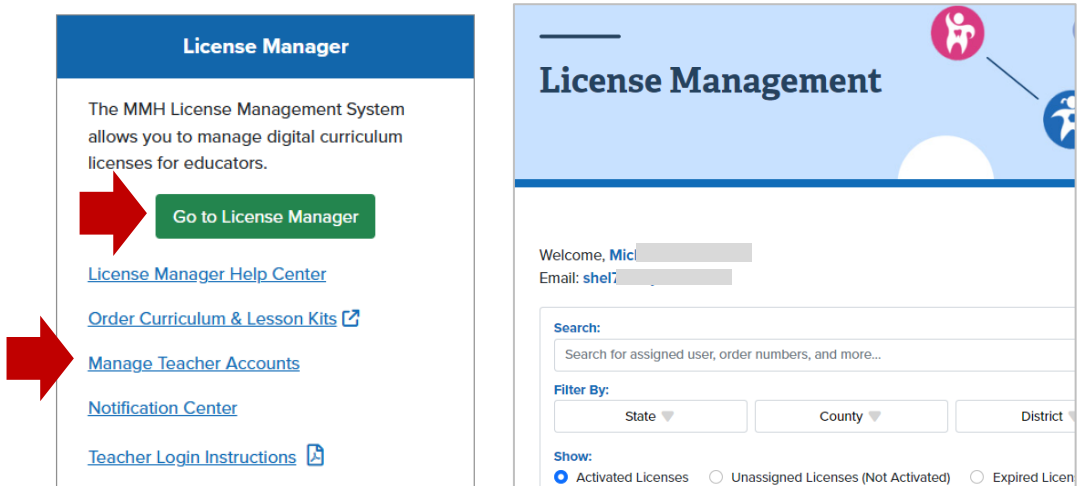

The image shows two parts of the MMH website interface. On the left is a 'Curriculum' menu box with a blue header. It contains the text: 'Access the MMH digital curriculum which is based on active licenses assigned to your account.' Below this text are five items: a green button labeled 'Go to Digital Curriculum', a blue link 'Teacher Help Center', a blue link 'Scope & Sequence (Gr K-12)', a blue link 'Guidance for Implementation', and a blue link 'MMH Skills Competencies Guide (GK-12)' with a PDF icon. A red arrow points to the 'Go to Digital Curriculum' button. On the right is a 'My Curriculum' page with a white header. It features the text 'Elementary' and a large red arrow pointing down. Below this are three curriculum cards for 'Michigan Model for Health' for 'GRADE K', 'GRADE 1', and 'GRADE 2'. Each card has a blue header with 'The model for healthy kids!' and a white circle with the grade level (K, 1, or 2) inside. The cards have a purple footer with the grade level label.

Access to Digital License Management System (Digital License Managers Only)

To access the MMH Digital License Management System, click the Go to License Manager button from the MMH Portal page within the License Manager box. From the License Management page, conduct a search to find a license, run reports and/or assign digital licenses to teachers.

License Managers can click the Manage Teacher Accounts link to view, add or edit teacher accounts.
